HEARST APPEARS IN DOCK

New York Newspaper Proprietor Arraigned on Charge of Criminal Libel.

York, Nov. 6.-William R. Hearst appeared before Justice Wyatt in the court of special sessions for a hearing on the charge of criminal libel brought against him by former Congressman William A. Chanler, Mr. Chapler alleges that the libel was contained in a recent article appearing in the New York Evening Journal concerning the case of Raymond Hitchcock, in which Mr. Chanler's name was the witness stand today and denied absolutely that he had ever been at Mr. Hitchcock's house when young girls were there. He also denied that he had ever ridden in Hitchcock's automobile at any time. Mr. Chanler said that Hitchcock for the past two years had owned a home near his own at Great Neck, Long island, and that he knew the actor quite well.

At the conclusion of the hearing, counsel for Mr. Hearst moved that the case be dismissed and that Mr. Hearst THE e not held for the grand jury, on the ground that his proprietorship of the paper had not been proven and that the Democrats Will Fill Some of the Of article in question had not been shown o be of a libelous character.

In this connection it was testified by in employe of the Evening Journal that Mr. Hearst never wrote for that paper, and that his only interest in it was in the opposing counsel until next Monday to file briefs, and said that he would render a decision next Wednesday.
